

I oppose current efforts to consolidate radio/TV/newspaper ownership. I think this consolidation will limit the public's access to a variety of news and opinions. A variety is important for members of the public to understand fully the events and issues that affect their lives.